Bomb-blasts in Hyderabad on the 25th August, 2007

SHRI EKANATH K. THAKUR: Sir, on behalf of my party, Shiv Sena, I join the House in offering our condolences to the bereaved families. Sir, we condemn the attacks in the strongest possible terms. My party leader, Shiv Sena Pramuk, Shri Balasaheb Thackery, has been warning the Indian polity, from time to time, that we are taking these attacks in an individual way, as if they are the attacks on cities, on people, on mosques or mandirs. But these are the attacks on the nation, and my leader has expressed, from time to time, that Indian nation has not only to survive but it has to also prevail. Therefore, instead of being a soft State, we have to become a hard State and we have to come down heavily on the terrorists everywhere. Sir, the Government does not have the courage to attack the camps in Pakistan, Bangladesh and elsewhere.

I have only three points to make. No.1; please send the strongest message to that nation by hanging Afzal today itself. It is the demand of the Shiv Sena Party that Afzal should be hanged, and all the terrorists should be given the message. Secondly, dismiss the Andhra Pradesh Government. The third demand of my party is, restore POTA. These things have to be done. Otherwise, this Government will be considered a Government of*
